

Oshkosh Bird Fest

Celebrating International Migratory Bird Day

It's all about birds . . . watching, feeding, habitat, migration

Saturday, May 7, 2011

Menominee Park, Oshkosh

6:00 am—2:00 pm

6 am—Noon: The Big Sit, a unique way to bird watch

8 am—2:00 pm: Bird Banding, Bird Watching, Informative Exhibits, Tree Planting Demonstration, Bird City Wisconsin Dedication, Vendors, Food

10 am—2 pm: Live Birds of Prey with Bird Rehabilitator Beka Weiss, Aves Wildlife Alliance. Presentations at 10:30 & 12:30

Something
For Everyone!

Children's activities in the Zoo

Yard Tours hosted by Wild Ones Fox Valley Area

6 pm—9 pm: Downtown Oshkosh Gallery Walk

Featuring: Local Bird Photographers:

Mike Briley - Art Haus

Michael Huebschen - Bergman's Fine Jewelry

John Van Den Brandt - Gilded Lily

Boyd Gibbs - Limelite Studios

Crescent Moon Antiques: Bird carver, Frank Zuern

Apple Blossom Books: Meet Mariette Nowak, author of "Birdscaping in the Midwest", talk about birds and native landscaping with Winnebago Audubon and Wild Ones members

Oshkosh has been awarded recognition as a

BIRD CITY WISCONSIN . . .

encouraging protection and management of greenspaces; landscaping with native plants in backyards and parks; adopting architecture and lighting systems that reduce collisions; making our community hospitable to breeding, wintering, and migrating birds that seek safe places to spend time and find food.

Bird Fest Planning Committee:

City of Oshkosh
Oshkosh Bird Club
Oshkosh Zoological Society
Winnebago Audubon Society
Winnebago Lakes Council
Wisconsin DNR

For additional information, contact Janet at wiss@centurytel.net or 920-589-2602