

City of Oshkosh Informational Display Area

CITY HALL (FIRST FLOOR)

The new features of this area include an updated community section, a “Stay Connected” section listing media tools for citizens to stay informed on city issues, a “What’s New” section with video and print materials of current city projects and activities, and an organizational chart of city departments and divisions. The “What’s New” section will be updated regularly on different city topics with handouts for citizens.