Input Sought on Community Development Director Qualities

(Oshkosh, WI.) The city of Oshkosh seeks public input on the qualities they would like to see in the new Community Development Director. Citizens may submit their comments through the city website by clicking on the link entitled Community Development Director Citizen Input Survey.

“This is a very important position for the city and our organization,” City Manager Mark Rohloff said. We want to move forward in the hiring process with input from the public on what they value in regard to a Community Development Director.”

This citizen input survey link will be located under the city news and updates portion of the website. The deadline for submission is December 18, 2009.

For more information please contact the City Manager’s office at (920) 236-5000.
