Oshkosh Community Media Services (OCMS) is proud to announce that Oshkosh Today was named the best entertainment talk show by the Alliance for Community Media at the recent Hometown Video Awards Festival in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. This is the first time OCMS programming has been honored with this prestigious national award.

Earlier this year Oshkosh Today was also honored with a state Award of Excellence for best talk show by the Wisconsin Association of Public Education and Government Channels (WAPC).

Oshkosh Today is a public affairs program broadcast on CitiCable 10, CATV2, and 101.9 FM WOCT. Each 60 minute show features multiple guests highlighting Oshkosh community events, non-profit groups, and much more.

Production and promotional support for Oshkosh Today is provided by the Friends of OCM. Oshkosh Today is taped every other Wednesday in the OCMS studio in City Hall. For information on becoming a guest on an upcoming Oshkosh Today program please call OCMS at (920) 236-5179.

OCMS staff would like to extend a special thanks to all the volunteers and guests that have been with us over the years to make this program successful.
