Church/Merritt/Main Intersection to remain closed to motorists

Oshkosh, Wis. – Work related to utility lines and water shutoff issues will require the Church Avenue/Merritt Avenue and Main Street intersection to remain closed for the next several days. Crews will be working during the weekend and anticipate the work will be completed sometime the week of May 10.

Pedestrian access across Main Street is still available at Church Avenue/Merritt Avenue. Motorists should be aware the following Main Street intersections are still open: Parkway Avenue, Irving Avenue, Washington Avenue/Algoma Boulevard, High Avenue/Waugoo Avenue and Ceape Avenue.

For more information about street closures and traffic restrictions related to the Main Street Reconstruction Project, please visit www.ci.oshkosh.wi.us.
