Oshkosh is Tops in State for Raising Kids

(Oshkosh, WI.) BusinessWeek magazine has selected Oshkosh as the best place to raise your kids in the state of Wisconsin. Oshkosh was selected for this honor based on data that included school performance, number of schools, household expenditures, crime rates, air quality, job growth, family income, museums, parks, theaters, other amenities and diversity.

“I’m pleased to see that BusinessWeek has confirmed what we have known for a long time,” said Oshkosh City Manager Mark Rohloff. “For years we have been able to recruit employees because of our family friendly city. Our schools, parks system, the museum, the public library, the waterways, and all the other enrichment opportunities that we have here make Oshkosh a desirable place for families to live.”

The factors that were given the greatest weight in the Best Place to Raise Your Kids 2010 Report were affordability, safety, and school test scores.
