

1) Routine Trauma or Medical Assessment:

A. Major Trauma Patient? Go to Trauma Destination Protocol.

B. Patients condition Life Threatening?

- If No: Transport to ED within reasonable distance of Patients choice
- If Yes: Can patient be Stabilized at Scene
 - If No: Transport to Closest ED for Evaluation
 - If Yes: Stabilize, Transport to ED within reasonable distance of Patient's choice

2) If patient is a Minor or Otherwise to Make Determination:

A. Major Trauma Patient? Go to Trauma Destination Protocol.

B. Patients condition Life Threatening?

- If No: Transport to ED within reasonable distance of Guardian's choice
- If Yes: Can patient be Stabilized at Scene
 - If No: Transport to Closest ED for Evaluation
 - If Yes: Stabilize, Transport to ED within reasonable distance of Guardian's choice

3) If patient is in Police Custody or Secure Detention:

A. Major Trauma Patient? Go to Trauma Destination Protocol.

B. Patients condition Life Threatening?

- If No: Transport to ED within reasonable distance of Law Enforcement's choice
- If Yes: Can patient be Stabilized at Scene
 - If No: Transport to Closest ED for Evaluation
 - If Yes: Stabilize, Transport to ED within reasonable distance of Law Enforcement's choice

Life threatening are as follows: Inability to maintain an airway or ventilate a patient, inability to obtain an IV on a patient with a life threatening arrhythmia, non-asystolic cardiac arrest, and labor with concern for complicated delivery (prematurity, meconium staining of amniotic fluid, hemorrhage etc.)

Emergency Departments of reasonable distance are as follows: Appleton Medical Center, Aurora Medical Center, Berlin Memorial Hospital, Mercy Medical Center, Ripon Medical Center, St. Agnes, St. Elizabeth's, and Theda Clark.

Steve Stroman, MD, FACEP, FAAEM, EMT-P Medical Director, Oshkosh Fire Dept
