Utility Billing and Collections to be closed for training

OSHKOSH, Wis., November 10, 2021 – The city of Oshkosh Finance Department, including Utility Billing and Collections, will be closed to the public on Thursday, November 18, 2021 from 11:30 am to 1:00 pm for a staff meeting and in-service training.

The public is asked to schedule transactions at other times during the day on November 18th. Collections and Utility Billing will be available to assist customers from 8:00 to 11:30 am and then again from 1:00 to 4:30 pm. If a transaction can only be made from 11:30 am to 1:00 pm, a drop box in front of City Hall can be utilized.

The Finance Department appreciates your cooperation and understanding during this brief period of inconvenience. The timing of the meeting and training was established to create the minimal amount of disruption in normal service.

For more information, please contact the Finance Department at (920) 236-5005.
