City of Oshkosh selects new City Clerk

OSHKOSH, Wisconsin, December 6, 2021 – The city of Oshkosh has selected Jessi Balcom as its next City Clerk. In her new position, Balcom will oversee the City Clerk’s Office, which is responsible for elections, the issuance of city licenses, and maintaining legislative records for the Oshkosh Common Council.

“We are pleased Jessi Balcom will be our next City Clerk,” commented City Manager Mark Rohloff. “Ms. Balcom has broad experience in local government, and has been a valuable member of the Public Works department for the past 2 years. I am confident that she will excel in her new role with the city.”

Balcom has been a Management Analyst in the City’s Utility Division since July 2019. Prior to that, Balcom was the Village Administrator for the Village of Slinger for 6 years, and was previously with the Village of Elm Grove as a Zoning and Planning Administrator. Overall, Balcom has over 15 years of municipal experience in various roles. She earned her Bachelor’s Degree in Public Administration and Policy Analysis from the University of Wisconsin - Stevens Point and also holds a Master’s Degree in Public Administration from the University of Kansas.

“I am excited to move into the City Clerk position and am looking forward to the many opportunities I will have to work with the residents, City Council, city staff, and our community partners. Oshkosh is a wonderful place to live, work and play and I am grateful for the opportunity to be a part of it,” said Balcom.

Balcom will begin her duties as City Clerk on January 4, 2022. She will be replacing current City Clerk Pamela Ubrig, who retires on January 3, 2022 after 41 years of service with the city.
