City of Oshkosh now accepting 2022 Community Development Block Grant public service applications

OSHKOSH, Wis., February 28, 2022 – The city of Oshkosh is accepting grant proposals from local non-profit organizations for the 2022 program year. The program year runs from May 1, 2022, through April 30, 2023.

The city of Oshkosh will utilize federal Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) funds to support a variety of public service activities. All clients benefitting from the use of CDBG funds must live within the city limits of Oshkosh. The proposal must provide a direct benefit for low to moderate income residents of Oshkosh. The funds can be used for administration, supplies, materials and other costs related to the implementation and operation of a program. No applications will be accepted for startup costs or capital expenditures such as vehicles, facility renovations, and similar items.

Applications are due Monday, March 28, 2022 by 4:30 pm. The application is available on the city of Oshkosh website at <https://www.ci.oshkosh.wi.us/EconomicDevelopment/>. Click on “CDBG 2022 Program Year Public Service Application” under “News and Updates”.

To submit an application, please email the completed application and attachments to Emily Tardiff, City of Oshkosh Grants Coordinator, at etardiff@ci.oshkosh.wi.us. The total email attachments cannot exceed 10 MB in size. Reach out to Emily Tardiff by email or phone 920-236-5029 with any questions.
