Oshkosh State of the City virtual event set for Monday, March 28th

OSHKOSH, Wis., March 14, 2022 – The annual Oshkosh State of the City Address and Awards Program will happen in virtual format on Monday, March 28th. The event will begin at 6:00 p.m. on multiple media platforms. City Manager Mark Rohloff will highlight Oshkosh’s progress, look at what’s to come later in 2022, and look ahead to future goals.

The event will begin with an introduction by Mayor Lori Palmeri, followed by City Manager Rohloff delivering the State of the City Address. This year’s theme is “A Vision for Oshkosh” which includes a look at the city’s Strategic Plan, its elements, and why it’s important for residents.

Following the Address, the Citizen Service Awards and Community Partnership Awards will be presented by Mayor Lori Palmeri and Oshkosh Common Council members Michael Ford, Lynnsey Erickson, Bill Miller, Courtney Hansen, Matt Mugerauer and Aaron Wojciechowski. The Citizen Service Awards honor individuals who have achieved various five-year milestones serving on city boards and commissions, and the Community Partnership Awards recognize organizations that have enriched the quality of life in Oshkosh through initiatives, programs and support.

The video presentation will debut on the Oshkosh Media YouTube channel at 6:00 p.m. on March 28th. The full video presentation will also be simulcast at 6:00 p.m. on Gov TV, seen on Spectrum channel 10, U-verse channel 99, the Oshkosh Media app on Roku, Amazon Fire TV and Apple TV, and live streamed on www.OshkoshMedia.org. It will also be available for viewing later on the Oshkosh Media YouTube channel. For more information, contact Communications Coordinator Andy Radig at (920) 236-5269.
