Telephone service has been restored to city of Oshkosh buildings

OSHKOSH, Wis., May 19, 2022 – A telephone service outage affecting city of Oshkosh buildings has been resolved, and telephone service has been restored. The telephone service provider, AT&T, resolved the problem at approximately 12:45 p.m. today. The service outage began at approximately 8:45 a.m. this morning.

City staff are working with AT&T to determine what the cause of the problem was. Telephones at city of Oshkosh buildings were unable to place outgoing calls, and unable to receive incoming calls during the outage.

City staff thanks the public for their patience during the outage.
